

A BOOK SIGNING FOLLOWED BY A PLAY

Davisson Entertainment celebrates Arizona native Cameron MacElvee's Golden Crown Literary Award for her stunning paranormal horror novel By The Dark of Her Eyes published by Bold Strokes Books. Please join us for a book signing, selected readings, and discussion hosted by "E.E." Moe (Director of The Woman In Black).

Last August, MacElvee and Moe compared their parallel ventures of women's voices in literature and the arts. Hill's novel/play and MacElvee's novel invigorated the idea of a dual venture.

"No one can deny the primal connection between mother and child. Neither can we ignore the tragic mothers of literature such as Grendel's mother, Clytemnestra, or Medea, who were driven to acts of violence by their love for their children. By the Dark of Her Eyes is a story about betrayal and revenge. At its heart, beats the theme of a mother's vengeance for the death of her child. As in Hill's The Woman in Black, we witness consuming unresolved wrongs which evoke rage, grief, loss, and the wave of suffering that follows in its wake." (MacElvee/Moe)

This THRILLER event will take place; Sunday, November 5 at Playhouse On The Park in Phoenix (1850 N. Central Avenue)with book signing 12:30 -2:15 and the Play 3:00 -5pm.

By the Dark of Her Eyes may be purchased at the event or bring your personal copy.

Attendees to the book signing are eligible for discounted tickets to the show.